

Please post pone the speed of answer until the interpreter shortage has been addressed. Currently, there are not enough CERTIFIED/QUALIFIED interpreters to meet the VRS demand. Efforts/focus should lie on funding current Interpreter Training Programs in an effort to groom interpreters to a level sufficient to process VRS calls. I have deaf parents and their level of independence has changed immensely since VRS. Please do not institute a speed of answer.